Summary of Legislation: (Amended) This bill establishes the Performance Review Commission to assess the viability of creating an office of performance review and, if appropriate, to make recommendations for legislation implementing the office.

Effective Date: July 1, 2002.

Explanation of State Expenditures: (Revised) The Commission consists of eight legislative members. Members are entitled to receive $112 per diem and $0.345 mileage. Expenses are to be paid from appropriations made to the Legislative Council or the Legislative Services Agency. Expenses are not expected to exceed $9,000.

The Legislative Services Agency is to staff the Commission. The agency should be able to absorb any additional expenses associated with the implementation of the above given its current budget.
